

September Camping

If the camping bug is calling you to a state park or forest for late summer camping, consider September. There isn't as much traffic and campgrounds are even more relaxed in nature.

September Camping Special Rates - September 7 - 30, 2010

Stay and pay for two or more nights at these areas and the standard rate is reduced 50%. This rate cannot be combined with other discounts. Please note the days this discount is offered varies at each participating area. Some areas offer the discount mid-week only and others any two more more nights.

Simply ask for the September Special rate.
