

Cacapon Resort State Park

CACAPON RESORT STATE PARK stretches from the Virginia border to within five miles of the Potomac River and West Virginia's northern border with Maryland. Cacapon is a long, narrow, 6,000-acre retreat offering a wide range of recreational activities from golf and fishing to simply relaxing.

Cacapon Mountain, at 2,300 feet, is the dominant scenic feature within the park, following its length north and south. Hiking and bridle trails and a road take park visitors 1,400 feet to the summit, where large rock outcrops of resistant sandstone, flora and fauna of the area, and magnificent views of the valley await. An observation platform offers a panoramic view of four states: Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.
