

Seneca

State Forest

THE OLDEST OF WEST VIRGINIA'S STATE FORESTS, Seneca borders the beautiful Greenbrier River in Pocahontas County. The forest offers pioneer (rustic) cabins; a four-acre fishing/boating lake; a small campground and 11,684 acres of lush woodlands for hiking, hunting or communing with nature. The lake and forest are named for Native Americans who once roamed the area.

RESERVATIONS

Cabins and Group Camp

Reservations may be made by contacting Seneca State Forest directly or by dialing 1-800 CALL WVA and asking for Seneca State Forest. This toll-free line may be used anywhere in the continental United States or any Canadian province in the Eastern time zone.

When making cabin reservations for four nights or more, a deposit of one-half the rental fee is required, with the balance due upon arrival; the full rental fee is required for reservations of three nights or less. If you make your reservation by telephone, you will have 10 days in which to make payment unless it is a last-minute booking.

In case of cancellations, deposits will be returned (except for a $20 handling fee), if notice is given at least 30 days in advance. Personal checks, money orders and major credit cards (Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Diners Club) are accepted. Identification may be required.

During the summer season (second Monday in June through Labor Day), the cabins are generally rented on a weekly basis, but three- and four-night rentals are also available. Arrival/departure days are Monday and Friday. Exceptions may be made in the event of a late vacancy.

Reservations may be made up to one year in advance (from the first day of the month of planned stay) and are recommended at all times. Online reservations are not available.

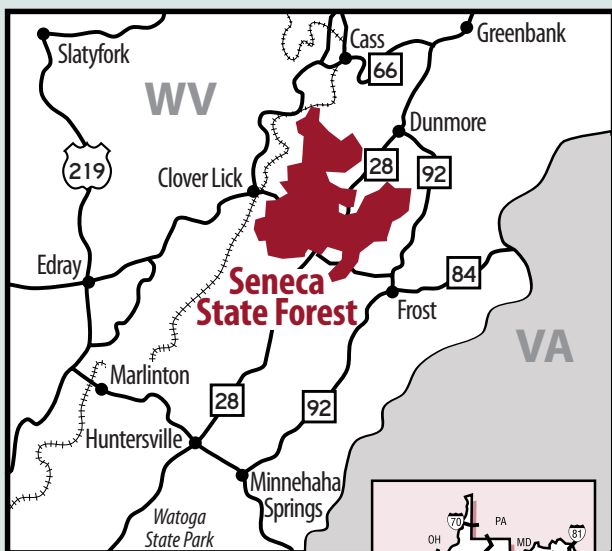

NOTE: All policies are subject to change. Any fees stated in this publication or posted may change without notice. Rate quotes are provided at the time of reservations and those rates confirmed by advance deposits.
